

Best Soil in Show

Open for entries

(Closes Tuesday 30th April 2019)

Show us your soil! If you're doing all you can to ensure it's healthy and fit for purpose, then it could be a candidate for the James Hutton Institute's Best Soil In Show competition, which is now open for entries.

The prize-giving for Best Soil in Show will take place at the Royal Highland Show, in the James Hutton Institute marquee. As well as the trophies, glory and the new cash prizes, the winners will receive full compositional, structural and chemical analyses of their soil and free entry to the Show.

Young Farmer Best Soil
£50 Prize Money

Overall Best Soil in Show
