All other actions were complete.

5 CEO Report, Quarterly Operational Plan, Risk Register
The CEO report was provided for information.
CC said that it had been an exceptional year and that he was proud of colleagues for coping so well with changes to working arrangements. Recent highlights include:
- Restoration work on the Beltie Burn which received TV and other media attention. Although not expected in the first year, salmon have recently been spotted in the burn.
The Director of APGC has been appointed.
- Income Generation, despite being significantly affected by the pandemic, is positive, though there is uncertainty around European funding.
- Although the T B Macaulay Lecture had to be cancelled for 2020, plans are underway to optimise this opportunity in 2021 by combining with COP26 and hosting the event in a bigger venue in Glasgow.
- The Operational Plan which was provided for information, demonstrates objectives are being met largely with some delays due to COVID19.
- Risk Registers. Risks continue to be mitigated. In preparation for EU exit, relationships continue to be built with European organisations. Supply chains risk post-EU exit is not listed in the Risk Register separately but is embedded within other risks. Procurement and Stores are working with the scientists to identify practical solutions.
- The Executive was asked if there were particular reasons behind the research pipeline looking so positive. CC/DR explained that:
  o access to UKRI funding helped o HoDs have been fully engaged in meeting targets
  o HoDs efforts to increase the number of PIs were paying off
  o Results are being gleaned from proposals submitted last year
  o new group leads within departments were introduced just prior to lockdown and this has worked well o The Senior Management Team has introduced short-life working groups. This is working well and members are fully engaged

11 Foundation
CC gave a presentation outlining the purpose of forming the trust and intended remit. A Tercentenary Campaign Group was formed, and is led, by the CEO. It brings together Huttonians from academia, industry, farming and literature in a series of projects to raise James Hutton’s profile up to and including the 300th anniversary of his birth. A James Hutton Foundation Office will be formed to fundraise, and to manage and distribute funds. Support has been offered from the various trusts associated with the Institute

In summing, the Chair said there was strong support from the Board for plans for the Foundation.

12 Media, Communications and Events
