

Network	Further Details	Websites
ALTER-Net: A long-term biodiversity, ecosystem and awareness research network	ALTER-Net is an interdisciplinary European network for ecosystem research that arose from a EU FP-funded Network of Excellence. SEGS has been leading and promoting social scientific work on biodiversity and ecosystems in ALTER-Net since 2004.	www.alter-net.info/
Centre of Environmental Change and Human Resilience (CECHR)	A partnership between the University of Dundee and the James Hutton Institute. CECHR provides a hub for interdisciplinary research addressing how societies can increase resilience to environmental change and promote sustainable futures. SEGS are represented on the board of directors.	www.dundee.ac.uk/cechr/
Ecosystem Services Community Scotland (ESCoM)	SEGS support ESCoM through representation on their organising committee (ESCoM Central) and attending their events. ESCoM was founded in 2011 by four Scottish organisations all working on mainstreaming the idea of ecosystem services into Scottish policy and practice.	http://escom.scot/
European Society for Rural Sociology (ESRS)	SEGS were the organising committee and hosts of ESRS 2015. Founded in 1957, the ESRS is the leading European association for researchers, policy makers and scientists interested in the study of rural issues.	www.ruralsociology.eu/ http://esrs2015.hutton.ac.uk/
EU COST Action ES1203: Enhancing the resilience capacity of sensitive mountain forest ecosystems under environmental and climate changes (SENSFOR)	SEGS contributes to decision-making on the enhancing of resilience capacity of sensitive mountain ecosystems through representation on the Management and Steering Committees of SENSFOR.	www.sensfor-cost.eu/ www.cost.eu/COST_Actions/essem/ES1203?management
EU COST Action FP1207 on forest-related policy analysis	SEGS is represented on the Management Committee of the COST Action on forest-related policy analysis.	www.cost.eu/COST_Actions/fps/FP1207 https://sites.google.com/site/costactionfp1207/
International Association of People-Environment Studies (IAPS)	SEGS researchers are represented on the IAPS board and thematic networks. IAPS is an interdisciplinary forum that brings together researchers focusing on transactions and interrelationships between people and their socio-physical surroundings (including built and natural environments).	http://iaps-association.org
International Union of Forest Research Organizations (IUFRO)	SEGS researchers are represented as an office holder of IUFRO (uniting more than 15,000 scientists from almost 700 Member Organizations in over 110 countries).	www.iufro.org
Science for the Carpathians	SEGS is represented on the Scientific Steering Committee of 'Science for the Carpathians' Board,	http://carpathianscience.org/about/s4c-

	also contributing to the Carpathian Convention and Mountain Research Europe Initiatives.	scientific-steering-committee/
Trans Atlantic Rural Research Network (TARRN)	SEGS are an anchor organisation for TARRN. TARRN is a collaborative network of social scientists in North America and Europe conducting original research on rural transformation and rural policies.	https://tarrn.wordpress.com/