SEP Index values (2011)

Data shown: quartiles for data zones in rural areas and small towns. The SEP Index has a theoretical range from 1-10, with higher values showing better performance.

Summary: Overall socio-economic performance was highest in accessible rural areas. Regions in close proximity to the central belt, and areas near Aberdeen, Inverness and Dundee/Perth performed strongly. Remote and/or post-industrial regions had concentrations of poor scores.

Calculations/data sources at: http://www.hutton.ac.uk/sites/default/files/files/Metadata - SEP Index raw data, scores and index.pdf