

Fruit for the Future

14 July 2011 13.30 – 17.30

PROGRAMME

The James Hutton Institute, Invergowrie, Dundee, DD2 5DA

- 13.30 Registration in the marquee in front of main reception building
– Tea and Coffee available on arrival –
Marquee Exhibits
- 13:45 - 13.55 Introduction – Dr Rex Brennan, The James Hutton Institute
- 13.55 - 14.20 Scientific curation of the National Fruit Collection - Matthew Ordidge of University of Reading
- 14:20 - 14.40 Biological control of pests in soft fruit - David Foster, Koppert
- 14:40 - 15:00 Linking genetics to desirable phenotypes in red raspberry – Julie Graham, The James Hutton Institute
- 15.00 - 15.30 Marquee exhibits
- 15.30 Field Tours: Start outside the marquee
- 15.30 - 16.10 New raspberry selections from the breeding programme – Nikki Jennings
- 16:10 - 16.40 How root and leaf traits of soft fruit help resist pest and pathogen attack – Ali Karley and Carolyn Mitchell
- 16.40 - 17.00 Marker-assisted breeding in blackcurrants – Rex Brennan
- 17.00 - 17.20 Blueberry quality trait mapping – Susan McCallum

For more information about Fruit Research at The James Hutton Institute please visit www.fruitgateway.co.uk

For information about The James Hutton Institute, please visit www.hutton.ac.uk