

Fruit for the Future

19 July 2012 13.30 – 17.30

PROGRAMME

The James Hutton Institute, Invergowrie, Dundee, DD2 5DA

- 13.30 Registration in the marquee
Tea and Coffee available on arrival
Marquee Exhibits
- 13:45 - 13.55 Introduction – Rex Brennan, The James Hutton Institute
- 13.55 - 14.20 From chemical ecology to practical IPM tools for soft fruit: A research and industry perspective - Nick Birch, James Hutton Institute/David Loughlin, Sentomol
- 14:20 - 14.40 Changes in raspberry crop management techniques – a grower’s view - Peter Thomson, Thomas Thomson, Blairgowrie
- 14:40 - 15:00 Raspberry spawn control: what we know and what we need to find out – Tim Miller, Washington State University
- 15.00 - 15.45 Marquee exhibits and refreshments
- 15.45 Field Tours: Start outside the marquee
- 15.45 - 16.35 Raspberry breeding - New selections– Nikki Jennings, Mylnefield Research Services
- 16:35 - 16.55 Resistance through physical traits in raspberry – Julie Graham, James Hutton Institute
- 16.55 - 17.15 Fungicide effects on fruit quality in blackcurrant - Rob Hancock, James Hutton Institute
- 17.15 - 17.30 Blackcurrant breeding – Dorota Jarret, Mylnefield Research Services

For more information about Fruit Research at The James Hutton Institute please visit www.fruitgateway.co.uk

For information about The James Hutton Institute, please visit www.hutton.ac.uk