Driving from Dundee and the south:

At Dundee take the A90 north signposted Aberdeen. Around a mile after passing Stracathro Service Station leave the A90 at the Northwaterbridge junction, turning left then immediately right signposted Fettercairn. Take the unclassified road to Fettercairn then follow the signposts for the B974 signposted Banchory. After about 3 ½ miles at the Clatterin Brig Tea Room turn right on to the unclassified road signposted Drumtochty and Auchenblae. Glensaugh Farm is reached after about ½ mile. Turn right into the farm, passing farm buildings on the left and cottages on the right before reaching the office and reception on your left in about 100m.

Travelling from Aberdeen & the north:

Take the A90 south signposted Edinburgh. About eight miles south of Stonehaven turn right on to the B966 signposted Fettercairn and Auchenblae. Pass the industrial site before turning right to Auchenblae. Drive through the village up the hill and at the top turn left, signposted Glensaugh. Pass Drumtochty Castle and after another two miles pass Loch Saugh on the left. Glensaugh Farm is about ½ mile further on. Turn left into the farm, passing farm buildings on the left and cottages on the right before reaching the office and reception on your left in about 100m.

When you reach Glensaugh:

Visitors are always met at the farm office. Please be aware that Glensaugh is a working farm and visitors should not wander around unaccompanied. A signing in book and risk assessment for visitors is available at reception.
